

EFFECTS OF INFLUENZA VACCINATION SHORTAGE

On People in Different Age Groups and Health Conditions

San Diego County Telephone Survey 2004 & 2005

* Statistically significant decrease

Risk factors include: Chronic health problems (heart, lung, kidney, diabetes, sickle cell, thalassemia, immune system or metabolic disorder), pregnancy, living with someone with one of those conditions, living with someone age 50+ years or under 28 months, health care or long term care worker, or long term care resident.