SENIORS AND TEENS BUILD RELATIONSHIPS ON THE COURT; Compete in Several Sports during Intergenerational Games

WHAT: Teams of seniors and middle school children of incarcerated parents compete against each other in several challenges including a basketball shoot, miniature golf, and nutritional games.

WHEN: WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 2007 FROM 10 A.M.–2 P.M.

Opening Ceremonies–10 a.m.

Games–11:30 a.m.

WHERE: O'Farrell School
6136 Skyline Drive
San Diego, CA 92114

WHY: The County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency and its partners in the Intergenerational Games hope to promote health and physical fitness, and to establish intergenerational relationships amongst seniors and children within San Diego County. The middle school students participating in these Intergenerational Games have parents who are incarcerated. This event gives them an opportunity to link with positive role models.
