SERVICES FOR OLDER & DISABLED ADULTS ARE “IN FOCUS” ON NEW SHOW County-sponsored Radio Show Spotlights Special Concerns and Programs

Do you have questions about the new Medicare Part D prescription drug program? Do you want to avoid being a victim of identity theft? Are you interested in what's new for retirees?

“In Focus,” a new radio program on CASH 1700 AM, offers an entertaining way to learn about services and special deals for older adults and persons with disabilities. Host Vickie Velasco combines her extensive knowledge of services for this population with her witty style to create a lively hour of information and fun.

“In Focus,” broadcast from 10 to 11 a.m. every Saturday, also encourages listeners to call in and get answers to their questions on a variety of topics.

The program is sponsored by Aging & Independence Services, a division of the County of San Diego's Health and Human Services Agency. Other HHSA services will be featured in future weeks, as well.

Aging & Independence Services provides more than 30 different programs to aid older adults, disabled persons and family members. The program will also include other community resources that make life easier and more enjoyable for “In Focus” listeners.
