

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 15, 2004

Contact: Lynn Waldman (858) 694-5345

MEDIA ADVISORY

TWENTY CHILDREN CELEBRATE ADOPTION AT SPECIAL COURT CEREMONY

Need for Loving Families Highlighted During National Adoption Awareness Month

- WHO: Twenty children and their adoptive families from throughout San Diego County.
- WHAT: Newly adopted children and their new families will finalize their adoptions at a special celebration in San Diego County Juvenile Court, in recognition of November as National Adoption Awareness Month.
- WHEN: 1:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 19
- WHERE: San Diego County Superior Court
2851 Meadowlark Drive
Department One
Courtroom of Judge Carol Isackson
- WHY: November is National Adoption Awareness Month, but at any point throughout the year there are about 150 children in San Diego County in need of adoptive homes. There is a critical need for people who will adopt minority children, sibling groups, children over five years old and children with special needs. This special adoption finalization ceremony will promote awareness of the vital need for permanent homes for children, while showcasing the positive impact adoption has made on many lives.

Editor's Note: Children and families will be available for interviews after the ceremony.

###