NEWS ADVISORY

HEALTH DISPARITIES 2007 CONFERENCE TO FOCUS ON IDEAS, STRATEGIES

WHAT: Health Disparities 2007: Know the Facts, Make a Change! Summit

WHO: Wilma Wooten, M.D., M.P.H., San Diego County Public Health Officer
Larry Cohen, M.S.W., Executive Director, Prevention Institute
Rodney Hood, M.D., Careview Medical Group

WHEN: Thursday, June 21
8 a.m. – 3 p.m.

WHERE: Marina Village
1936 Quivira Way, San Diego 92109

WHY: Health Disparities 2007 is an opportunity for the local healthcare community to discuss the top health disparities affecting San Diego County today. Causes of health disparities, as well as issues of cultural competence and language barriers are part of the program. Community partners will present best practices in reducing disparities. Exhibitors and networking are also part of the summit.

The County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) is a member of the Reduce or Eliminate Health Disparities Initiative (REHDI) Coalition, which is presenting the summit.
