

County of San Diego
Health & Human Services Agency
*Making a Difference Every Day

The Health & Human Services Agency is sponsoring Career Fair 2008, and would like to invite anyone:

- Over 16 years of age and a CalWORKs, Welfare-to-Work, or Cal-LEARN participant; or
- Currently serving a Welfare-to-Work sanction.

How will Career Fair 2008 help you:

New Job Seekers:

Looking for your first job? Career Fair 2008 will provide you with job seeking skills such as completing job applications, resume preparation, and interviewing techniques.

Currently Employed:

Need a better or higher paying job? Career Fair 2008 will provide you with labor market trends, available trainings, and career advancement information, all geared to helping you find a new or better paying job.

Employment Barriers:

Career Fair 2008 will provide assistance and resources to those individuals with alcohol or drug related employment barriers.

Community Colleges:

Interested in attending a Community College? Career Fair 2008 will have staff from the community colleges on hand to assist you.

Welfare-to-Work Sanctioned:

Currently serving a Welfare-to-Work Sanction? Career Fair 2008 will have staff on hand to assist you with curing your Welfare-to-Work sanction.

Career Fair 2008 will be held one (1) Saturday during the month of May 2008.
(Location and Date to be announced)

Please pre-register by:

Returning this form in the enclosed postage paid return envelope; or

E-Mail: CalWINHD@sdcounty.ca.gov Subject: Career Fair 2008

(Please be sure to include all of the information from the mailing label)

For additional information, visit the internet or contact your Human Services Specialist or Employment Case Manager.

Internet: <http://www.sdcounty.ca.gov> - Services – CalWORKs – Career Fair 2008